ADJOURNMENT

Ohio Revised Code § 121.22(C): "All meetings of any public body are declared to be public meetings open to the public at all times." This ensures the right to attend and observe, but not to participate verbally. The Ohio Attorney General's Sunshine Law Manual explains this distinction explicitly: "The Open Meetings Act does not give the public the right to be heard at meetings. A public body may, but is not required to, provide an opportunity for public participation." (Source: Ohio Sunshine Laws Manual, published annually by the Ohio Attorney General's Office.)
